

TWILIGHT SERIES

THE 3 Rs FOR TEACHERS:

What works for students with complex needs in the classroom?

PART 2: WED 30 MAY 2018

Wendy Williams
Special Education
Consultant
& co-presenting
Kymberly Louise
Behavioural Scientist

"The 3 Rs for teachers" is a special series designed to support teachers within the context of your own classroom and your specific circumstances.

It is a unique opportunity to consult with an experienced special education teacher consultant to gain tools to use in your classroom.

Numbers are limited for each session in order to maximise interaction, providing a relaxed, informative workshop experience.

CLASSROOM AND SPECIAL EDUCATION TEACHER WORKSHOP - Primary and Early Secondary School

This workshop is suitable for classroom and special education teachers who are working across any of the three education sectors in South Australia, who teach students who have special learning needs, with a formal diagnosis or with no diagnosis.

Feedback from Session 1:

- "Speaker extremely inspiring, motivational"
- "I wear a variety of different (professional) hats, so I found that I could apply much of what was shared in my own varied experience"
- "Relaxed, non-threatening, informative. Great time of the day to have a workshop"
- "I love the timeslot, I was able to leave school and come straight here".

ABOUT THE PRESENTERS

- Wendy has extensive experience working as a teacher in mainstream and special schools. With a degree in disability education, she currently works as a Special Education Consultant, assisting school staff to support students with disabilities in their classrooms and school environments.
- Kymberly is a behavioural scientist with a background in special education and student wellbeing. She is passionate about working towards social justice and wellbeing for vulnerable groups within the community, and currently works as a professional development consultant for Learning 4 All.
