TWILIGHT SESSION
4PM – 6PM

This workshop is intended for all school staff working with students or involved in supporting student behaviour in education settings. The workshop will provide information and strategies to support learning and behaviour for students with Autism, and will also provide participants an opportunity to meet with one of Australia's leading experts in autism clinical work, assessment, and research.

This workshop is interactive with a practical focus. Learning outcomes will include:

- Understanding autism and what it means for learning
- Practical strategies to implement behaviour change within your education setting
- Skills required for success in school for both the student and teacher

Certificates will be provided that include reference to the Teacher Standards that apply to this workshop:

- ✓ 4.1 Support student participation: Establish and implement inclusive and positive interactions to engage and support all students in classroom activities
- ✓ 4.3 Manage challenging Behaviour: Develop and share with colleagues a flexible repertoire of behaviour management strategies using expert knowledge and workplace experience

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Professor Young's early research in the USA involved Savant Syndrome which led to a series of publications in key journals and was the subject of a one hour documentary, "Uncommon Genius". Over the past 20 years her research has focused on intervention and detection of children and adults with autism. Her work includes four books: Autism Detection in Early Childhood (ADEC, 2007), The Structured Program for Early Childhood Therapists Working with Autism (SPECTRA; ACER Press; 2009) Ready Set Learn (Moffat and Young, 2017) and Autism and Crime: Myths and Mechanisms. In more recent years she has been asked to assess older individuals and provide expertise in court reports as an expert witness. She has been an academic for 20 years but is involved in private practice and has worked extensively in classrooms collaborating with educators.
