Kymberly Louise

Behavioural Scientist

ALL STAFF IN MAINSTREAM AND SPECIAL EDUCATION SETTINGS
Including leadership, Special Education and wellbeing coordinators, counsellors, classroom teachers, and support staff

PARENTS AND CARERS ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND

This session is intended for all school staff working with students or involved in planning, program or policy development for student wellbeing when working with students with intellectual disability. This session will provide information and learning about developing successful strategies to support students with Intellectual Disability, Down syndrome, or Developmental Delay.

Learning outcomes for this workshop include:

- Successfully using visuals, scheduling, prompting, differentiation etc to promote successful and independent learning

For those interested learning about supporting behaviour, we are offering a comprehensive set of 2 full day workshops that will allow you to conduct a functional behaviour assessment for your student (March 15th & 29th).

Certificates will be provided that include reference to the Teacher Standards that apply to this workshop:

- ✓ Standard 1.6. Work with colleagues to access specialist knowledge, and relevant policy and legislation, to develop teaching programs that support the participation and learning of students with disability
- ✓ Standard 7.3. Identify, initiate and build on opportunities that engage parents/carers in both the progress of their children's learning and in the educational priorities of the school.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Kymberly is a Behavioural Scientist with a background in special education and student wellbeing, in addition to a degree in psychology. She currently works as a professional learning consultant for educators across South Australia.

In the past Kymberly has worked in metropolitan and remote locations to develop programs for families and educators whose students face barriers to education. Her professional goal is to use her knowledge of psychology with her experience working in special education and wellbeing within the education sector to work with educators in their quest to improve educational engagement and success for students and members of the school community.
